Provision of drinking water through new Tube well at Damrughutu

On 14th June tube-well was fixed at Damrughutu Ananda Marga Jagrti School for drinking water purpose. This tube-well was sponsored by Manuel Mouri from Milano, Italy.

Before installation of this tube well there was one well near the school which was being used by the villagers and the students. But usually the well used to dry up during every summer season and the users use to suffer a lot.

Now the villagers and the teaching staff and students are very happy and benefited on installation of the tube well.

Onstruction of new Guest House for Uma Nivas

4 rooms guest house for Didis /visitors at Uma Nivas is under construction. Previsouly mainly the male visitors from different places could not stay in Uma Nivas. Now that inconvenience will be solved

Construction of new Jagrti School at Korche village

New Jagrti School has been constructed at Korche village. The land required for this school was donated by the local people. This village is a 100 % tribal village. The villagers are co-operating our service projects. Functioning of the school also started.

Construction of new Hostel

Since the condition of present Singhbhum hostel is in very bad condition, construction of new Singhbhum Hostel (Primary school hostel) is started.

New project for provision of water

New project for provision water for the hostels and general public has been taken by the Seva Dal. It is now in the final stage.

Mass feeding by Seva Dal

On 14th June there was a mass feeding by the Seva Dal.

Here is an article of Shrii Prabhat Rainjan Sarkar on Ananda Nagar

Ananda Nagar Is the Beacon Light for the Universe

We have come again to Ananda Nagar after a long time. Ananda Nagar is the nucleus of this universe. It is not merely the physical Ananda Nagar, it is also the Ananda Nagar of our inner heart. We will have to build it in all possible ways, we will have to take all steps for its rapid development so that it can show light to the entire universe.

But why should this be done so rapidly? Because human beings do not live by material objects alone; they also have their prāṇa dharma (their vital inner essence). Even if they are provided with all their material needs – their food, clothes, and all necessary requirements, they will die an inglorious death if they are detached from their prāṇa dharma. Ananda Nagar will provide that ancient eternal vital force. Thus it must be developed in all respects. This brooks no delay: to delay means to impair the cultural progress of the entire human society. We will not allow this to happen. Thus we must build Ananda Nagar in all ways.

Ananda Nagar has a unique glory, and that glory has developed out of the great sacrifice of many noble souls. Let Ananda Nagar provide guidance to the entire universe in spiritual practice, service, sacrifice, renunciation, and culture. This is what we should pray for, and this is the reason that we should build Ananda Nagar and help it radiate light to the universal humanity. This is what I want.

After a long, long time, we have assembled here together again. What can be more joyful than this? When I entered Ananda Nagar, I was overwhelmed with joy. When I was looking at you, I could hardly restrain myself – I felt so happy, and I think that you, too, felt the same, because we have been able to again come and sit together here. What can be more delightful than this?

Each of the objects in the world has a vehicle, a medium. Let Ananda Nagar be the medium of our cultural progress; let us try to build Ananda Nagar and its adjoining villages in all respects – economically, socially and culturally. Any work which is difficult for one person to accomplish is not difficult for many people to perform. A bundle of sticks is a burden if one person carries it, but if it is divided amongst many, it becomes only a light load. Similarly if we all work together unitedly, it will not be difficult to establish Ananda Nagar as an ideal cultural and spiritual centre. Let us dedicate ourselves to this noble task from this very moment.
