Review of Progress of Football Training

10th to 11th November: A team of players of first division football teams of Kolkata visited Ananda Nagar to review the progress of undergoing football training at Ananda Nagar.

Shrii Sukesh Chakraborty, a goalkeeper of Kolkata Senior Division football tournaments taught the different tricks to our goalkeepers of Ananda Nagar football coaching centre, a branch of Ananda Marga Sports Academy. The skills of all the players were observed and monitored by Shrii Suryavikash Chakraborty who was a former football player for seven years and also was the captain of the East Bengal Club. We took the following decisions:

- 1) Two football teams (under 13 and under 15) from Ananda Nagar will go to Kolkata separately in the first six months of 2022 to play football.
- 2) Each team will play at least three matches.
- 3) From now on, football coaching will be given in a new and modern way and Shrii Suryavikash Chakraborty has also given instructions to the existing coaches in this regard.
