Shravanii Purnima Celebrated

12th August: Shravanii Purnima is a great day in the history of Ananda Marga. Ananda Marga Pracaraka Samgha was established in 1955 in the railway town of Jamalpur in Bihar. But His preparation started from this auspicious day in 1939. Shrii Prabhata Ranjan Sarkar was then a student of the science department of Vidyasagar College, Kolkata. Kalicharan Bandopadhyay a notorious dacoit of the time changed his (Kalicharan's) life radically through spiritual initiation given by Shri Prabhata Ranjan, on the full moon evening at the Kashi Mitra ghat on the banks of the Ganges in Kolkata. Later he came to be known as Kalikananda Avadhuta. Student Shrii Prabhata Ranjan Sarkar first emerged as a spiritual master by sowing the seeds of spiritual initiation and appeared as Anandamurti to Ananda Marga devotees. Seven and a half thousand years ago, the sadhana system prescribed by Taraka Brahma Sadashiva evolved and disappeared completely about twelve hundred years ago. After 1200 years, Shrii Shrii Anandamurtiji organized spiritual practice of the whole human society in a modern and simple way by using Shaktisampat (enforcing energy) in that extinct sadhana system. This spiritual practice of Ananda Marga is called "Rajadhiraja Yoga".

The 12th August'22 also known as Shravanii Purnima in Ananda Marga was celebrated at Ananda Nagar Bakul Bitan Ashram with six hours akhanda "Baba Nam Kevlam" Kiirtan, collective Ishvar Pranidhan, Svadhyaya and Narayan Seva.

National Flag hoisted on Independence Day

15th August: On August 15, 1947, partitioned India became free from subjugation through political independence instead of a united India and economic independence. On this occasion, national flag hoisting, children's notebook-pencil, biscuit distribution and football competition were organized in various schools of Ananda Nagar.

Janmastami Festival Celebrated

19th August: The origin of human civilization is Rarh, nava is-Rarh. Ananda Nagar is the lying-in-room of Rarh. Ananda Nagar is the junction of combination of Shaivism, Jainism and Buddhiism. The confluence of the Dakshina and Kunti rivers at Ananda Nagar is the "midpoint" of Rarh, sacred to the feet of Sadashiva and Krishna. In the last week of December 1988, the land became blessed with the auspicious appearance of Marga gurudeva Anandamurtijii.

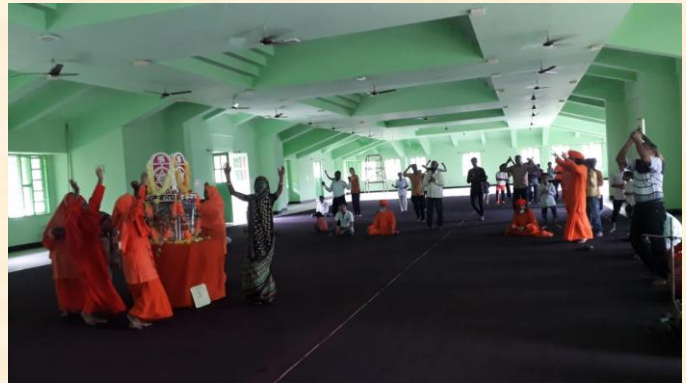

On the occasion of Janmastami on 19th August 2022, all the Margii of Guridih village performed a three-hour akhanda Baba Nam Kevalam Kiirtan, with collective lishvar Pranidhan, Svadhyaya and Acarya Muktananda Avadhuta explains the significance of Janmashtami. "May they also rejoice"

Namaskar,

Sharadotsav is the biggest festival of Bengal and Bengalis. Everyone tries to wear new clothes on this occasion. Those who are financially well-off wear different designs and famous branded dress every day from Shasti to Dashami (sixth day to tenth day of Shradotsav). They enjoy those few days of the festival. But we see that the children of those who are financially backward, i.e. below the poverty line, do not get even a single new dress for Sharadotsav. In Ananda Nagar, 95 percent of the 85 villages live below the poverty line. Out of a total population of 99,684 children and adolescents are 16,278. We have planned to distribute new clothes to 1000 children and adolescents of economically backward families during Sharadotsav. (If financial resources are available, it is better to provide for everyone) May they also rejoice in Sharadotsav with everyone, may their faces also smile. Requesting everyone to donate some part of your Sharadotsav budget for them. Moreover, we are requesting special donors, various organizations and companies to extend your hand of cooperation. Come forward for the welfare of the poor people in the villages far away (55kms) from Purulia district city, join and cooperate in the "May they also rejoice" project.

If any organization, company, group want to use their own name and banner can do so. We will help you to create the list of actual recipients based on the area.
